Jordans Village Store originated a century ago in Horace Tomlin's front room at Woodside, one of the cottages in the first of the terraces built around the Green. As people started moving into newly constructed houses on the Estate, it soon became apparent that a shop on a larger scale was needed. The brick building that is now the Estate Office was erected by Jordans Village Industries Ltd and a store was opened under the management of William K Hughes, who had experience as a shopkeeper in the North of England. The range of stock included paraffin and coal, and newspaper rounds were started.

However, the failure of Jordans Village Industries Ltd put paid to this early effort, but a group of residents took matters into their own hands, and a sum of £220 was subscribed as preliminary capital to fund a new Store. A shed was ordered, and a fortnight later it arrived in sections brought from Bedford on a lorry, and was erected on the land in front of the Village Hall. By 1924 the Jordans Co-Operative Store - as it was then known - was in full swing, with an incredible range of goods and a Post Office too.

By 1930, the Shop Committee felt justified to build a larger single storey brick building on the site. In April 1935, the name was changed to Jordans Village Store Ltd, to avoid confusion that arose with the word Co-Operative, as some wholesalers refused to supply goods to such organisations.

In the 1970s, the idea to add an extra storey with two flats was floated, and this came to fruition in the early 1980s. More recently the front of the store was extended to provide more internal space for the even more incredible array of goods that we still enjoy today!

Although there have always been full time members of staff, the Store has survived thanks to so many volunteers and the generosity of the community. The recent COVID outbreak highlighted just how essential the Store is at the heart of our Community. Thank you to everyone who has worked so hard to keep this wonderful, treasured asset thriving; Jordans wouldn't be the same without you.

Plant Sale

Saturday 14th May on the Village Green

Plants needed for the JORDANS PLANT SALE SATURDAY 14th MAY (on the Green)!

If you are sowing seeds or dividing plants this Spring, please keep some aside to donate to the sale. Everything welcome – indoor and outdoor, annuals, perennials, shrubs, vegetables, herbs...

We're looking for additional people to join our friendly team of 4. Some gardening knowledge would be great but is not essential, enthusiasm for plants and helping out at events is! We meet a handful of times a year to run 2-3 events including the Plant Sale in May and Flower and Produce Show in September. Please contact Liz Apedaile on 07763 475997 or lizapedaile@hotmail.com if you are interested or want to know more.

We would like to thank Heather Rowe and Yvonne Munn who have stepped down after being key members of the Horticultural Society for many years. Their plant knowledge and gardening experience is second to none! Heather and Yvonne, we look forward to your flower and vegetable entries to the Show for many more years to come!

Jordans Climate Action

I'd like to thank all those who attended the meeting in the Village Hall. We are now setting up a working group to explore what the village and JVL can do to reduce carbon emissions and protect nature.

Some people have already shown interest in being involved and if there are any others, please contact me if you'd like to get involved. The working group will be developing an action plan for the village and we welcome input from as many people as possible. It will also be a place to empower and encourage people to come with ideas and initiatives so we can be an enabler and catalyst for climate related projects to flourish.

The Village Store is keen to do more but needs feedback and support from the community. A rewilding group has formed to explore improving biodiversity on village land. There are already things happening but there is so much more we can do.

Many villages have declared climate emergencies. In talking to councillors from some of those villages, they have regularly come up against red tape and restrictions, primarily because the public land or council houses are owned by different public authorities. They all said that Jordans is in an unique position because it owns so much land and property. Their question was why weren't we doing this already? Jordans could become an example to other villages as to what could be possible. It seems the gauntlet has been laid down for us to take up!

The Queen's Jubilee – Nominate Your Special Tree

To mark her Jubilee year in 2022, HM The Queen has launched a unique tree planting initiative called The Queen's Green Canopy which invites people from across the United Kingdom to "Plant a Tree for the Jubilee".

As well as inviting the planting of new trees, The Queen's Green Canopy will dedicate a network of 70 Ancient Woodlands across the United Kingdom and identify 70 Ancient Trees to celebrate Her Majesty's 70 years of service.

As part of these celebration, Buckinghamshire Council is looking for the best-loved trees and woodlands in the county and is inviting residents to nominate their favourites. They are aiming to compile a list of the 70 most-loved trees and woodlands in Bucks.

Seer Green & Jordans Society will be nominating some of the trees identified in our Your Special Trees competition back in 2010, but we'd be delighted to receive any further suggestions. Alternatively, if you'd like to take part directly then take a photo of your chosen tree or woodland, identify where it is and send it via social media to @BucksCouncil or 70trees@buckinghamshire.gov.uk. The trees or woodland must not be on private land that is not accessible to members of the public.

Nominations close at midnight on 1st May 2022.

JVL & Refugees

Some residents have asked whether JVL can do more to help with refugees coming to the UK, and in particular whether it should make a cottage or a flat available to a refugee family, be they from Ukraine, Syria, Africa or wherever. The Management Committee discussed this at its last meeting, and it became clear that the answer is not simple. On the one hand, there is a clear and immediate need for safe accommodation where a family can recover from a traumatic experience and start a new life. And Jordans has a proud record of helping refugees and children evacuated from London during the Second World War.

On the other hand, refugees need frequent access to a range of support services, and a small rural village such as Jordans is isolated from these services compared with a town. In addition the family would take precedence over other people on JVL's waiting lists, some of whom have been on it for many years, and this would be unfair on them. The next available accommodation is likely to be a bedsit flat in Puers Field Flats, probably not very good for a refugee family.

So the first question for JVL was whether Jordans is a suitable location for a refugee family, and we sought advice from the Wycombe Refugee Partnership, which is currently helping about 50 refugee families. They explained that refugees need access to good public transport, work opportunities, health services, legal services and people from their own countries, so a small village like Jordans is probably not suitable. So it's unlikely that JVL will now reserve accommodation for refugee families, and the Committee will make a decision on this at the April meeting.

However, for any tenant who would like to participate in a government resettlement scheme, JVL will be willing to relax the restriction on subletting in its tenancy agreements – please contact Chris Jenkins if you would like to do this. We also encourage any resident who wishes to support refugees in any way, such as the recent collections in the village for a refugee family in Little Chalfont.

If you have any thoughts on how JVL should or should not help refugees, please do let me or any member of the Management Committee know.

Bob Hall

Chair, JVL Management Committee

Chris Jenkins adds:

The Wycombe Refugee Partnership has useful information about how you can help refugees on its website <https://www.wycombe-refugees.org>

Homes for Ukraine

89,000 people across the country signed up offering accommodation on the first day of operation of the Government's Homes for Ukraine scheme: <https://homesforukraine.campaign.gov.uk/>

Buckinghamshire Council is also compiling a list of local offers to draw on once the scheme has been clarified. If you want to offer a spare room or more for at least six months, please sign up on the Government's online form and also send an email to Stephanie Payne:

stephanie.payne@buckinghamshire.gov.uk

Wycombe Refugee Partnership does not accept donated goods for Ukrainian refugees. They ask people not to send physical donations to the Ukrainian border either, because they have been overwhelmed with mountains of goods. What is needed is cash. They suggest you donate via large, reputable organisations such as the following:

Unicef, the United Nations humanitarian aid organisation focused on children's welfare, is accepting donations to ensure every displaced child receives the health, nutrition and water they deserve to sustain them. <https://www.unicef.org.uk/>

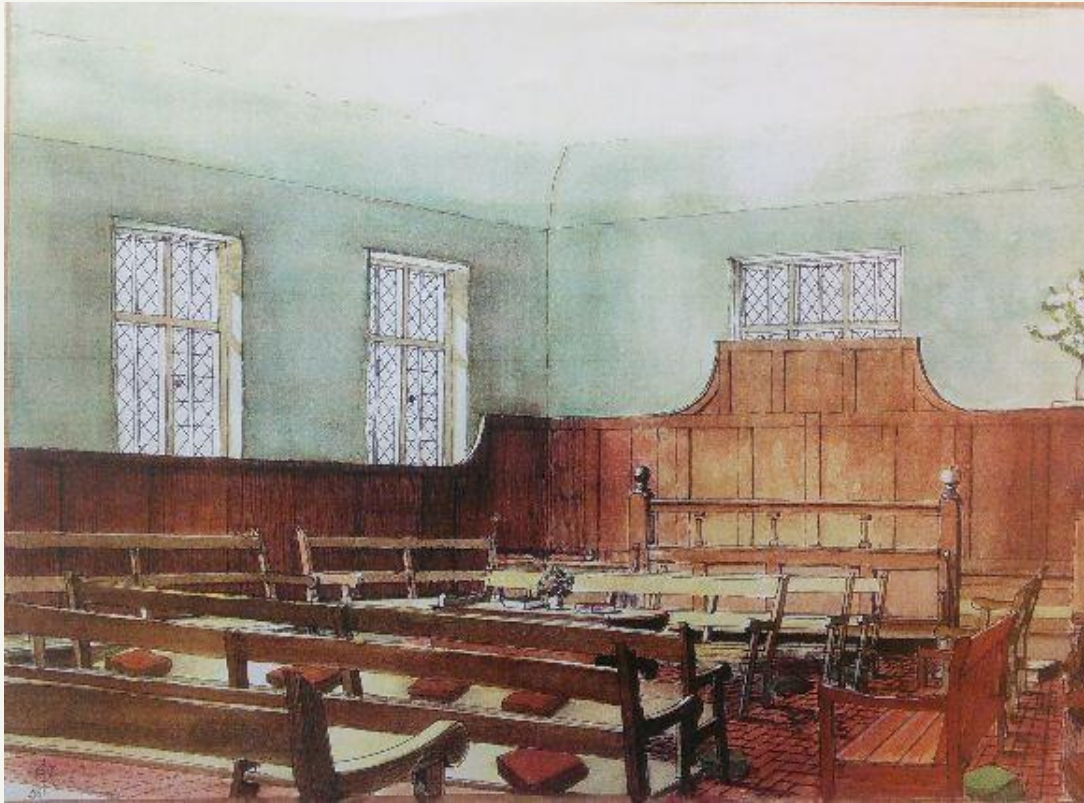

The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) has launched an emergency appeal to send more resources, staff and aid to Ukraine's neighbours, who are taking in hundreds of thousands of refugees. <https://www.unhcr.org/uk/united-kingdom-for-unhcr.html>

#HelpUkraine Emergency Appeal: Set up earlier this month by the Association of Ukrainians in Great Britain (AUGB), the appeal is raising funds to provide accredited and registered Ukrainian charities with medicine, food and vital services. Donations can also pay for blankets, hygiene packs and trauma counselling. <https://www.augb.co.uk/>

The British Red Cross, the Ukrainian Red Cross Society (URCS) and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) have pledged to respond to existing and emerging humanitarian needs. Your donation can will help someone affected get food, water, medicine, first aid, warm clothes and shelter. <https://www.redcross.org.uk/>

Save the Children has launched an emergency fund where donations will go towards essential humanitarian aid, psychological support for children, winter and hygiene kits, educational access and cash grants to families. <https://www.savethechildren.org.uk/>
