

OLD JORDANS

Ten acres of South Buckinghamshire countryside is home for Old Jordans Guest House and Conference Centre. The 17th Century Farmhouse was a meeting place of the early Quakers and our Mayflower Barn is made from timbers from the ship that took the Pilgrim Fathers to America. Jordans Quaker Meeting House is the final resting place of William Penn and his family.

LOCATION

Old Jordans is just 3 miles from Beaconsfield in the heart of the Chilterns. We are only 15 miles from Heathrow Airport and the M40 (Junc 2) is just 2 miles away. The local railway station (Seer Green) and those of nearby Beaconsfield and Gerrard's Cross – provide an excellent service from London and elsewhere throughout the UK.

Our 28 bedrooms all with private facilities, television and radio, direct dial telephone, hairdryer and tea and coffee making facilities are located in the farmhouse and other buildings within the grounds.

The farmhouse, steeped in history, provides a friendly and homely hub to the centre, with lounges, the old farmhouse kitchen dining room where English breakfast, lunch and dinner are served. Morning Coffee and Afternoon Teas are served in the Lounges and in the grounds when the weather permits.

The beautifully preserved Mayflower Barn provides a unique setting for weddings, conferences, and exhibitions.

The Refectory, a modern venue, with air-conditioning, AV equipment and a conservatory with beautiful views over the grounds – ideal as a breakout area. We also have three smaller meeting rooms, similarly equipped, available (two in the main house) for smaller meetings for up to 12 people.
